1. [REDACTED] Delivered to the offices of Senators William Saxbe (R., Ohio), J. W. Fulbright (D., Ark.), and Representative John A. Blatnik (D., Minn.) [REDACTED] in which their names were mentioned.

2. [REDACTED] Delivered to George Holliday, Congressional Research Service, Library of Congress, a compilation of Romanian agriculture export and export statistics in response to his request for assistance in answering a member's request. Holliday said the material was exactly what he needed.

3. [REDACTED] Delivered a package containing proposed Agency legislation amending the CIARDS to provide for cost of living increments upon retirement to Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, the Office of the Speaker of the House, the Office of the President pro tempore of the Senate and a copy to Mr. [REDACTED] for Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee.

4. [REDACTED] Accompanied the Director, along with General Graham, [REDACTED] Knocké, to a briefing before the Intelligence Subcommittee of the Senate Armed Services Committee to discuss recent developments in the Middle East. See Memorandum for the Record.

5. [REDACTED] Senator Stuart Symington, Acting Chairman, Senate Armed Services Committee, called to say he was anxious to obtain as soon as available a memorandum which he could use in dealing with the press inquiries regarding the Helms memorandum to General Walters of 28 June 1972. I told him we would have it by 0900 tomorrow, 7 November.

6. [REDACTED] After consulting with Mr. Walsh, ADDI, I advised Jack Perry, of the Council on Environmental Quality, that since Senator Stevens (R., Alaska) has already been advised of the existence of our intelligence memorandum on Oil and Gas Development in Siberia, he might as well go ahead and make the memorandum available to the Senator and retrieve it from him as soon as it was feasible to do so. I told him he could also suggest to Stevens that if he was interested, we would be glad to have several of our people meet with him to brief him further on this subject. Perry said he would proceed along these lines and thanked me for my assistance.
